Health and Welfare League Campaign in February.

An intensive campaign for increasing membership will be started on Tuesday, February 4, by the Bourbon County Health and Welfare League. The work will be carried on by committees who will make a thorough canvass of the city and county. Help this good work by responding with your name and fifty cents for membership.

The League's good work carried on by the Visiting Nurse, Mrs. Harriet Minaker, is too well known here to invite newspaper comment. Day and night through the stress of the influenza she has worked in alleviating distress and sickness among the unfortunate who were unable to help themselves, and in every way has worked hard to carry out the objects for which the Health and Welfare League was created. Help the good women of the League in their good work by becoming a member. "Have your name and fifty cents" will be the slogan from February 4.

The Health and Welfare League started its penny lunch at the Paris Public Schools yesterday—another good work they are doing.

Knitters Again Appealed To.

An appeal to women released from knitting for the Red Cross to make protectors for wounded soldiers or sailors who have suffered amputation of arms or legs has been issued by the National Booth Knitting Committee of the Navy League, with headquarters in New York. A model "garment" has been knitted by Mrs. Chaucery M. Depew, wife of the former Senator, and approved by medical officers of the Debarment Hospital Service, whose instructions receive every week hundreds of disabled men returning from foreign service.

McPHEETERS.

—Death cut short a beautiful life when he took from the loving friends and relatives the soul of Mrs. Etta Quisenberry McPheeters, wife of Mr. Irvine McPheeters, her death occurring suddenly at an early hour Friday morning, following a short illness of influenza.

The news of Mrs. McPheeters' death came as a distinct shock to her host of friends, most of whom did not even know she had been ill. Everything that medical science and loving care could do to prolong her life was done, but to no avail.

Mrs. McPheeters was a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Quisenberry, well-known and prominent residents of Paris, both of whom preceded her to the grave many years ago. She was a young woman of lovely Christian character, possessing a sunny disposition, with a bright smile and a cheery good word of greeting for all. She is survived by her husband, one daughter, Miss Ethel McPheeters, and one sister, Mrs. Lena Parker, all of this city.

The body was taken to Winchester where the interment took place on the Quisenberry lot in the Winchester Cemetery, Saturday morning at eleven o'clock, with services conducted at the grave by Rev. W. E. Ellis, pastor of the Paris Christian church.

The 113th Field Signal Battalion, composed of Kentucky, Indiana and Ohio men, including the Signal Corps Company organized in Lexington, and of which several Paris boys are members, is one of the several detachments at the Replacement Depot. The 113th Field Signal Battalion led the list of donors with 18,312 francs out of a total sum of 78,065.30 francs.

The bride is a handsome young woman, with a host of friends in this city and county. She had been enrolled as a pupil in the business department of the Paris High School, but had not been attending since the influenza ban had been lifted.
